Terms & Conditions

PRODUCT REGISTRATION AGENCY CODES (PRA-Codes) of Pharmacy Product Numbers (PPN)

1. Preamble

IFA has got the responsibility for supplying maintenance of the Pharmacy Product Number (PPN) by the ISO/IEC 15418/ANSI MH 10 maintenance committee. The PPN is open for Product Registration Agencies to use PPN for transforming national or closed numbering systems into an ISO conforming codification systems. PPN provides the means for worldwide uniqueness and interoperability to any other coding-/numbering-systems and can be used with any suitable data carrier, such as linear Bar Code, 2D-Symbols and RFID. PPN specification and request form are freely available through the IFA web pages.

2. Services

IFA provides support for Product Registration Authorities how to use the PPN for embedding product numbers and systems in order to make them globally unique.
IFA registers PRA-Codes upon request and receipt of the PRA-Code Request Forms. IFA will respond to received application forms promptly. Registered PRA-Codes will be published on the IFA web pages.

3. Terms

IFA will accept applications for PRA-Codes for coding systems fitting to the scope of the PPN. Applicants shall submit the completed request form to IFA via post mail, fax or e-mail.

The one time registration fee for a PRA-Code is Euro 100,- exclusive VAT. IFA will issue the invoice for the registration fee prior to registration. Registration will be executed upon receipt of payment.

IFA is responsible for assigning unique PRA-Codes following the general terms of ISO/IEC 15459 Unique Identification. Obsolete PRA-Codes will get status "not further in use" and is blocked for further assignment'. The responsibility for product numbers remains with the responsible Product Registration Agency.
